

A grid consisting of 10 vertical lines and 2 horizontal lines. The top horizontal line is slightly curved, dipping towards the center. The bottom horizontal line is also slightly curved, rising towards the center. Two large 'X' marks are placed on the grid. The first 'X' is located in the second column from the left, between the two horizontal lines. The second 'X' is located in the eighth column from the left, also between the two horizontal lines.
